

Take the first step to your Salsa Evolution

Have you seen the adverts? Received a flyer through your door? Or maybe you went to the free launch night?

As Salsa Evolution nears the end of its third month in business in Horsham, the results are clear - dancing success!

"I can't believe how much fun we're having!" said one student. "I was hooked from the launch night and am now about to start my third course."

Indeed, Elaine describes the lessons as, "a great social evening to meet new friends and learn a new dance skill."

Welcome to the Salsa Evolution wall of fame.

Just in case you were thinking that Salsa dancing isn't for you, please read on. And maybe, just maybe, you'll be convinced otherwise, and join the ever-growing group of happy students.

"It's just good fun for all ages," said Jane who has reached improver level.

"What I like is the flexibility," explained another student. "Although it's a 5 week course, if you do miss a week you don't feel left behind, as Claire re-caps everything and gives you individual attention."

"Yes, fantastic approachable, friendly teaching," echoed Mark. Salsa really is for everyone.

Male, female, older, younger. You don't need to be of a certain age or appearance. You don't even have to have any rhythm, they'll teach you all that in class. Honestly, they specialize in 2 left feet! It's a great way to get fit, is loads of fun, you meet new like-minded friends, and it boosts your confidence.

A Horsham couple who are taking private lessons just wanted to change the 'awkward swaying' default their dancing was set to when on the dance-floor. After their first lesson they commented, "we totally surprised ourselves!"

Cross body/L.A. style Salsa is very logical to learn, and the courses enable you to progress through the levels at your own pace.

The dance is led by the man, so, basically he's in charge of deciding which moves to dance. "I'm loving the challenge of trying to remember the moves and dancing them in different orders with my partner. The ladies are super patient and we all just end up laughing if it goes wrong. Which inevitably it often does at this stage," commented a male student.

If you think Salsa dancing is a "girl's thing" trust me you're mistaken. How many girly latin men do you know? Yet they're amazing dancers.

wise. I just wouldn't know what steps to do!"

Salsa Evolution are running a brand new Absolute Beginners 5 week course, which starts on Tuesday 29th June at 7.30pm at the Brighton Road Baptist Church. Try before you buy!

You can come to the first week of the course for FREE and decide at the end if it's for you.

No obligation, just a brilliant way to trial, and you're guaranteed a great night. It's £30 for the full 5 weeks if you sign up after the class. Why not come along and find your dancing success too!

One example of a man stepping forward to dance is Dan, who told us. "I turned up for a one-off taster, not knowing what to expect."

"Two weeks later I was hooked! I love it and am now starting my third course. I would recommend any guy to at least try it."

"I reckon you'd be surprised by how much you enjoy it and, well, that you can even do it!"

Another student taking private lessons, Steven, described: It's a great feeling knowing that you can put some Salsa music on, find the beat, and just start dancing with a lady.

"I would never have the guts to ask a lady to dance otherwise -"
